

Dame Fanny Waterman in Seoul

Fanny Waterman recently visited YASS (Yamaha Artist Services Seoul) where she taught several master classes sponsored by Yamaha Music Korea over a two day period. There were more 250 passionate music lovers in the audience, and Dame Waterman said she really fell in love with the Korean students.

Yamaha Korea's series of master classes and recitals are crescendoing in popularity and have developed a loyal following among the musical elite of Korea.

By organizing these events, Yamaha Korea have established themselves as leaders in the Korean musical business and pillars of the cultural society.

Yamaha salutes YASS, and especially Artist Relations manager Jennifer Lee for their accomplishments.

Dame Fanny Waterman DBE, OBE, CBE was born in Leeds and was a gifted concert pianist at an early age. She later retired from performing to devote herself to teaching, and she has dedicated her life developing the talents of young British pianists. She is the founder, Chairman and Artistic Director of the Leeds International Pianoforte Competition.
